ORAL JUDGEMENT

By virtue of the impugned order of the District Registrar, the administration of the petitioning cop-operative society registered under the provisions of the Gujarat Co-operative Societies Act, 1961 (Act) was put under the Administrator appointed by the District Registrar on the terms and conditions mentioned in the order for a period of one year. When the matter was called out, the learned Government Pleader, fairly, pointed out that the order was only for a period of one year and as the impugned order was passed on 5.7.89 and thereafter elections have been held, this petition has become infructuous.

In view of the aforesaid statement, this petition is required to be rejected. Accordingly, it is rejected. Rule discharged. Interim relief granted earlier stands vacated. No order as to costs.
